

E. J. Ourso College of Business

Microsoft Program Training Opportunity

Summary

- The E. J. Ourso College of Business is pleased to present a free training and development opportunity for LSU faculty and staff who wish to enhance their knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite products. The college is making a limited number of licenses available for Gmetrix, a self-paced, hands-on learning platform. Users can learn and practice specific skills in Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Access, and Outlook. Faculty and staff wishing to access the training platform for Microsoft Office 365/2019 should complete the linked form for additional information about this opportunity: form.
- Licenses are limited and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Licenses expire in February 2025.

Details

- Free Microsoft Office Suite training opportunity from the E. J. Ourso College of Business.
- Enhance your skills in Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Access and/or Outlook using Gmetrix, a self-paced, hands-on learning platform.
- Limited licenses are available on a first-come, first-served basis through February 2025.

Apply Now

